This Note, presented at the Door, admits the bearer and accompanying friends.

And now a few more general words: I duly recd yours of ~~Dec. 18th~~ Jan. 11th - a fine long note, ~~note~~, (written with the 2 cats for your sole company, near midnight), & subsequently your line, giving names of several subscribers to our Subscription Anniversary, - the sum of £ 18. 11. 0.

- In your note was a reference to a previous one, in which (you said) you had notified me of your own & Mr. Palmer's subscription to our Annual Music Hall Meeting; but I had recd. none such; & knew not to what you alluded, until day before yesterday E. Deincy brought me yrs. of Dec. 18th, which you had enclosed to him, & he had laid away with his own in his desk; - he thinks it must have remained in the envelope, for he has no recollection of having seen it, until he took up note the other day from his desk.

Our Subscription Anniversary was very successful. The total will exceed $4500 - nearly $1000. more than last year, showing that the Am^r. Abolitionists do not propose to disband, or to cease from their associated labours. They were never in better spirits or courage. - The cooling off of the English Abolitionists toward our Cause is one of the greatest Moral & Intellectual Phenomena which ever came within my experience. There are a few exceptions, you know & I know, - praise be to God; & among them George Thompson & H. Martineau stand out prominent & conspicuous; but alas! for the bulk of them. - Garrison recently told me that James Haughton had written to him recently, giving him (G.) entirely up - "we are as wide asunder as the poles" !!! - he said.

Mr. Wallcut says he has not stopped John Dawson's paper, and has never failed to send it to him, every week. Where can the trouble be? He directs & sends it, as always before. - The "Spectator" come quite regularly. My extreme occupation since Christmas time does not leave me much time for reading, and I therefore am behindhand with the "Spectator" - a paper I always like to read. - Thank you much for Milner Gibson's capital speech. Some of these English men (Bright, Foster, Gibson, Prof. Newman, &c. &c. &c.) understand our question & position admirably, - better than many - perhaps most - of ourselves (meaning now the whole country)
